Whitmore Economic Development Group

- ▶ WEDG is the Whitmore Economic Development Group, a grassroots community organization since 2014, with 501(c)(3) status as of March 2015.
- ▶ Our focus is Community and Economic Development through supporting Agribusiness and related Technology.
- ▶ Our mission is to provide resources for sustainable and diverse agricultural business communities, upholding our vision of a community where every business thrives.
- ▶ Through a collaborative partnership with the Agribusiness Development Corporation, we established our premier community resource venue, the Pineapple Crate.

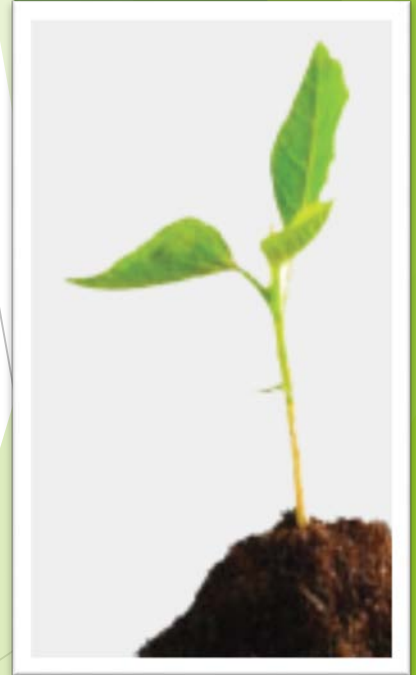

Location, Location, Location!

- ▶ Located within the old Dole base-yard on Whitmore Avenue, the Pineapple Crate is the first-ever co-working space focusing on Agriculture.
- ▶ WEDG is poised to provide office work space for individuals or companies (farms and appropriate enterprises) through memberships.
- ▶ We offer conference rooms and other amenities, as well as educational opportunities through sponsored presentations and classes.

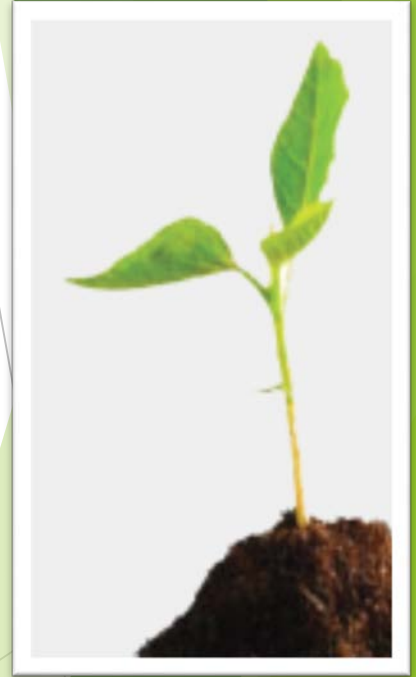

Our Objectives Are To

- ▶ Identify, nurture, and support collaborative partnerships relevant to establishing or reestablishing strong and healthy agricultural communities
- ▶ Support diversified agriculture within our Whitmore community and surrounding areas of North Central O‘ahu
- ▶ Support farmers, ranchers and producers with research and resource development (i.e., grant writing, relevant information/networking)

Our Objectives Are To

- ▶ Support the introduction, implementation and incorporation of 21st century technology to farmers, ranchers and producers to increase and improve their practices and efficiency levels
- ▶ Provide technology classes and other educational opportunities to farmers, ranchers and other producers that will assist them with business management
- ▶ Participate and contribute to efforts sustaining safe, healthy, productive and economically successful agricultural communities where all members thrive
